

Week 1

If you could be really good at one thing instantly, what would you choose?

Have you ever been convinced you knew what was best, only to find out later that you were wrong? What happened?

Why can it be hard to trust someone else's plan when you think your plan is better?

Read Jonah 1:1–17. What do you notice about Jonah that you may not have thought about?

Why do you think Jonah didn't want to go to Nineveh? What does his reaction tell us about how he was seeing the situation?

In Jonah 4, Jonah gets angry because God shows mercy to Nineveh. Why do you think Jonah struggled to understand God's perspective?

What's the difference between saying "God knows best" and actually trusting God when you don't understand what He's doing?

Is there an area of your life right now where it's hard to trust God's plan? What might it look like to trust Him with it this week? (School, friendships, family, sports, your future, something you're hoping happens, or something you wish was different.)
